

What if I work past age 65?

If working past age 65

- May enroll in Medicare Parts A and B
- Recommend talking to your benefit administrator
- Keep records of your health insurance coverage

Enrollment after 65

- When retiring, you may be eligible for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP). Your SEP may allow you to:
  - Enroll in Original Medicare (Parts A and B) for up to eight months after the month your employment or employer health insurance ends, whichever happens first
  - Enroll in a Medicare Advantage (Part C) or prescription drug (Part D) plan up to two full months after the month your employment or employer health insurance ends, whichever happens first